

Notice

This is to inform Undergraduate, Post Graduate and Law students that Management, Impact Group of Colleges, after much deliberation, has made decision to give opportunity to students that if they miss their internal exams, they have provision to appear in re-examinations for Class Test (CT) and Mid Semester under internal Marks Assessment with fine per paper.

On the matter of conducting re-examinations, following decisions, in the larger academic interest of students, are being listed below:

1. It is mandatory for students to pay Rs 500/- for each paper to write CT or Mid semester or both exams.
2. In case of missing the re-test, one more chance will be given to students with penalty of 1500/- for each paper.
3. No further opportunity, the students will have, if they miss out both the chances of taking re-tests.
4. No undue sympathy for careless and non-serious students.

Guidelines to 5th semester students as they were found absent from Internal Marks Assessment

- a. It is mandatory for them to submit application, requesting re-examination, to assistant professor Mr. Rocky Kumar
- b. Request application has to be submitted to Mr. Rocky Kumar during office hours latest by February 15, 2025.
- c. They are instructed to mention the name of paper, name of test whether CT or Mid or Both, and deposit the re-examination fee for each paper, they want to write.
- d. Schedule for re-examinations will be announced after receiving the request application from the students
